Jackson Ridge

The drownings Friday of upped the number of Hancock County accident victims to ten. sivo by drowning and an oqual number by automobile michapo sinco Jan. 1.

The bodies of Alvin Jarrenu and Carl Cappro, 16-year-old Nogroos, were found Saturday morning about 19 hours after they disappeared when swimming in a doop holo on the beach noar Gulfsido Assembly at 3:15 p.m. the provious day. The Jarroau and Capers youths had come from New Orleans for an all day outing with a group of St. Phillip's Catholic School mighborhood corps workers chaperoned by Rev. Francis Boinor.

Reccue operations appeared almost a repetition of a similar effort just 12 days beforo when Hancock County and Waveland law officers, Lucien Kidd and civil defense aides; concorvation boats and voluntoors searched for 36 hours to recover bodies of Glen Lehman and Jos Hall, who lost thoir lives in the same section on a Monronite workshop. Four companions narrowly escaped

when all wandpred too far from shore and lost their footing in the hole, said to be about 40 feet deep, dredged when the sand boach was erocted.

Jarroau was pulled up with grappling hooks at 9:15 a.m. and Capara about 48 minutes later. Coromr's juries empaneled by Emile Piazza rulod doathe duo to accidental drowning. Doputy Eido Depreo was bailiff for Jarroau's inquest with Joe Damiens, Buddy Seal, J i m m y Ferry, Charles Barrick, Larry Sauer and Francis Shippey as jurors. ### New Waveland plantunveiled

Architect Fred Wagnerpresented trustees of the Bay St. Municipal Separato School District Monday with preliminary plans for a new elementary school in Waveland and for an enlarged and modernized cafeteria for Bay Junior

He also gave estimates for a new floor and seats for the auditorium at the junior high. After a lengthy discussion the board approved Wagner's sketches. At the urging of trustee Paul Henley they asked Wagner to also draw preliminary plans for a new industrial arts shop at the senior high.

The proposed Waveland plant contains 12 classrooms, library, cafetorium, administrative offices, teachers' lounge and a separate 2-room music department. Designed for air conditioning the basically square main structure will have only one floor to calling door and no windows for each classrooms. Wagner emplained the poot World War II trond to finger-type construction was designed to got maximum cross antilection but was occorporate in comount of roof area requirestration ho wood tho Charles Murphy School at Poarlington whore 26,600 square foot of roof covors only , 18,500 square fect of enclosed area. In contrast, the proposed Waveland School would on close 21,200 square feet of floor space under a roof of 21,800 square feet. The "compact planeconomies will almost pay for air conditioning" said Wagner.

Estimated cost of the new school is $400,000, broken down as follows: main building, The remains were taken to band and music structure, 2,000 square foet, $34,000; covered walks, 1,500 square feet, $9,000; landscaping and paving $15,000; kitchen equipment, $10,000; fees, $23,000 and contingencies, $7,000.

Plans for the enlarged cafeteria at Bay Junior High call for construction of a 44 H 37 fcot extension of the present kitchen. When it is completed the present kitchen and enting aroa would be refurbished with a new floor, painting, new lighting and porhaps a new accoustical ceiling. Cost of this modernization Wagner estimated at $85,000

Robert Hoffman, who annually audits the school system's books, was present and trustee president Robert Hamilton asked if he could provide the trustees each month with the financial picture of the system and where it stood in relation to the budget. Because the school board meets the second Monday of each month, leaving only a short period to work up these figures, Hoffman suggested that this financial breakdown be prepared quarterly rather than monthly and the board went along with this

Two new teachers for the white system, Mrs. Andrea W. White and Miss Dorothy Fay Cox were approved on Superintendent McCullouch's recommendation as wore two teachers for Valena C. Jones, Miss Minnie P. Lewis and Billio J. Dooma.

Although the usual July 15 doadline for the system to submit its proposed budget for the following your to the state is only one week away, authorities in Jackson have requested budgets be withhold until the governor and the legislature provide the revenue to implement the

A $2.6 million bond issue to provide funds for the second phase of the Mulatto Bayou industrial park and complete tho airport was requested by the port and harbor commission at a joint meeting with the board of supervisors Monday night. Earlier in the evening Karl Weisenberg of Pascagoula, known as the 'grandfathor of Mississippi's port legislation' because of his authorship of Chapter 199 of the state cods, outlined how the county can utilize its bonding potential for development. Weisenberg said there is authority in Sec. 6 of this legislation to bond up to 20 per cent of the county's assessment and it doesn't require an election. There must be a petition to require a vote, he explained, and the way the law is written, bond money can be used to buy anything "up to a kitchen sink."

Based on an estimated ∞unty assessment of $23 million, the commission figured it can issue another $2.8 million worth of bonds. Already $1,750,000 are outstanding for the first phase. Over-all limit was figured at 4.6 million.

Calculations presented by port director Charles Hill showed $2,556,655 needed for work to proceed--$974,555 for the airport and $1,582,100 for the second phase of the port project. On that basis, the commission unanimously went along with his proposal to round out the bond request at $2.6 million. Lone absentee at the meeting was John A. Scafide, Bay ouis momber.

The metten was authorized by Elliot Casanova, Beat 5 commissioner. Some concern about funding was voiced by Beat 2 Supervisor Dolph Kellar, He asked the port commission to submit figures on that along with its formal recommendation to

Here's the broakdown on Hill's proposal:

Funds needed to completo bacco of rcbnu froquis off phase application for Focoral Aviation Administration monage

Land, $27,000; ortend runways, 2,000 feet, bringing it up to 8,500 feet for jots, $870,700; aprons 300 by 350 foct $149,000; build taxiways 6,500 by 60 feet, $408,000; beacong and lighting, $159,800, fire and crash station, $30,400, for a total of $1,145,100.

The county must put up 50 per cent of the above figure or $572,550. It is solely responsible for the administration building, calculated at $160,000; the access road, eventually four-laned, $182,000, and the control tower, $60,000--a total of $974,550.

For the second phase of the west Hancock Industrial park, railroad land, grubbing and drainage is $150,000; railroad track, spurs, etc., $300,000; access road black-topping, $65,000; public facilities, $187,100; additional dredging including three slips which were halted in the first phase, $680,000--all a m o u n ting to $1,582,100.

Casanova said he wanted tho public to understand this is for the second stage of port work and not that the commission ran short of funds on the first stage and had to ask for more monay.

The port commission in mid-June had asked its attornoys, Michael Haas and Gorald Gen, to prepare groundwork for a $750,000 bond issue for the port and airport. At that time Hill said he really needed $1,490,000. Apparently attorneys turn-

Another move to dictatorship?

The rush toward more gun control legislature by Congress has slowed as the emotional impetus of senator Robert Kennedy's assassination dims and as the people back home write their (ongressmen and Senators.

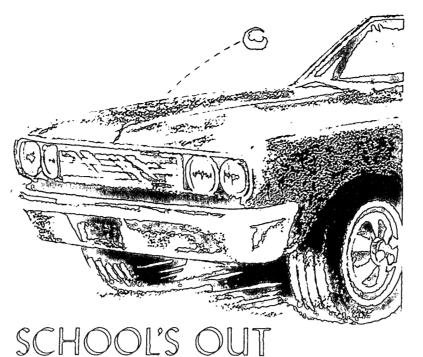

Opposition to the program by the National Rifle Assn. is decried by proponents. The NRA is depicted as a selfish lobby and groups such as the Emergency Committee for Gun Control, as the pure in heart, seek only to cut down violent death by guns. The committee, whose chairman is (ol. John H. Glenn, c., 1'SMC (Rec. of space fame, is just as "vicious" a lobby as NRA and its propaganda is based on alleged facts, none of which are substantiated.

From the standpoint of its immediate effect on the average citizen the new proposals to license gun owners and require registration of guns seems less objectionable to us than the ban on mail order sales. Conceivably they could do some good in keeping firearms out of hands of mental incompetents, convicted felons, alcoholics, narcotic addiera aliene and muentles as laimed his proponent. Whether these broadly defined groups should be prohibited gun ownership is another matter.

The price of this minimal, if at all good, is on the surface only the nursance of getting a license and registering your gun, but in the big picture there is a serious and dangerous precedent established. Should the federal government be permitted this power? Where would you draw the line between prohibiting gun ownership by alcoholics who do not drink and gun ownership by anyone who drinks? If all who drink are refused guns, why not all who smoke? Ad-

Conservative View by James J. Kilpatrick

WA SHINGTON - Mr. Speaker, what is the question before

The question before the house is, What should the country do about George Wallace? Now, there are some who would respond by saying that the former Governor of Alabama should be elected President, or be given Earl Warurge that the gentleman be popped into orbit on the next Saturn rocket, or named ambassador to Chad.

None of these answers impresses. The grim, uncomfortable fact is that Wallace is in this presidential race to stay. He is having the time of his life. If the pollsters can be believed-and their findings cannot wisely be discountedthe Alabama flyweight threatens to create the wildest political crisis in this country since

A year ago, the Wallace threat was no larger than a man's hand, it was then assumed, ho-hum, that he would carry Alabama, Mississippi and pernatter entirely.

Only the blind and the blockheads are saying pooh-pooh to Wallace now. In the country as whole, the polls now give Wallace 14 per cent of the popular votes against Humphrey-Nixon, and 17 per cent against Humphrey-Rockefeller. Nothing remotely like this has happened since 1912, when Teddy Roosevelt took 27 per cent against Taft's 23 and Wilson's 42, and the Bull Moose split of that year is not really analogous. No third-party candidate since the days of Eugene Debs has polled as much as 2.5

per cent of the popular vote. But, Mr. Speaker, it is not the popular vote that countra. Electoral votes come first, and it's what's up from that counts. The Harris Poll turns up some stunning figures in the 11 Southern States as a block: Humphrey 30 per cent, Wallace the 33, Nimon 25. In another line on, treat him as a major canup, the prospect to Wallace 32. McCarthy 32, Nixon 27, If the Republican nomines were Rockefeller. Wallace might well oweco everything bouth of the Potomac and east of the Minoicoippi.

numbers. Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana would give Wallace 27. For the purposes of speculation, add Georgia and South Carolina. That makes 47. it may sound incredible, but consider the addition of Virginia, North Carolina and Arkansas. That would give Wallace 78. He is strong in Tennessee and Maryland; they could bring his total to 99. These musings give no account to Kentucky (9),

Florida (14), Oklahoma (8), and Texas (25) it should be kept in mind-Wallace himself has made the point repeatedly—that no one is talking of Wallace's getting marines, only 33 are nucleara majority of the vote in most of these States. The talk is of a Nixon-Humphrey standoff of roughly 33-33, with Wallace talding 34 per cent and all the marbles. It takes 270 electoral votes to win. If Wallace creams off anything approaching a hundred electoral votes, the morning of Nov. 6 could mark the beginning of an unbelievable crisis.

All right. It sounds improbable. If Wallace is all that strong in the South, presumably he is strong enough elsewhere to pull a critical 5 to 8 per cent of the popular vote away from the Republican nominee, and thus trigger a technical Democratic landslide. Nixon might wind up with no more electoral votes than poor old Taft in 1912.

The answer, Mr. Speaker. is of course to amend the Conctitution, either to provide for direct election of our Prepidento by popular vote, or to institute a new electoral procedure that prohibits the game winner-take-all. it is too lare for that solution. The remaining alternative is to meet Wallace threat headdidate, and expose the falce simplicity of his demagogic platform. For the past few weeks, Number has been running lofally against Humphrey. Nixon had better lower his sights and brocden his target, and run like We are doubling now, elec- the wind against Wallace as

reports

Investigating Subcommittee, of which I am chairman, has recently completed two extremely important hearings dealing with the status of the U.S. strategic power and with our submarine program. In these hearings we discovered both good things and bad.

The findings of our evaluation of the U.S. Stratogic force are of particular significance now in view of the President's announcement that our government and the government of the Soviet Union will enter discussions of a possible arms control agreement in the nuclear weapons field.

As we enter these discussions, I think it is necessary that the public have as much information as possible to evaluate the prospects. Bitter experience has taught us. I hope. that our bargaining position has much greater credibility when we negotiate from a position of relative strength.

We found general agreement among the responsible defense officials we heard give testimony that our national strategic forces are adequate at this time to give us an "assured destruction" capability But members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff expressed concern during our hearings that our currently programmed strategic forces may not provide this assurance in the future.

Our comparative strength with the Soviet Union in the field of submarine power is not nearly so equal as in the area of strategic weapons. The United States is substantially inferior to the Soviet Union in terms of numbers of operational submarines. The Soviets have over 350 submarines. of which at least 250 are attack as distinguished from missilefiring submarines.

In contrast, the U.S. has only 146 submarines of all types--41 are Polaris missilefiring and 105 are attack. However, of our 105 attack subpowered while the remaining 72 are diesel-powered, Only 13 of 72 diesel-powered were built after World War II.

It is clear from the testimony that the 59 World War II vintage diesel-powered submarines in particular should be replaced as soon as possible by modern, nuclear-powered attack submarines.

It is also vitally important that we achieve and maintain a significant qualitative advantage in our submarine force if are to remain substantially inferior to the Soviet Union in total numbers of submarines. We heard some evidence that the Soviets are making significant strides in this area with the introduction of a new class of submarines.

On the recommendation of the Preparedness Subcommittee, the Armed Services Committee has authorized funds not included in the President's request to permit the development of a new design nuclear attack submarine which will assist in maintaining a U.S. qualitative advantage.

Marcuse, now 70, fled Germany in 1934, two years Hilter came into power. Today in his former country! chaged with advocating "iynamic Maoism," and with spiring left-wing students of the "new left" against Springer and the Bonn government.

It is sometimes said of Marcuse that the students who him haven't the slightest idea what he means. Percent is charming, even lovable. He is very proper, quite on the in his habits, is sometimes described as being as home

His student followers say that basically he advocated for the sake of change. He believes that in the present society the elements of change have been subvented to Establishment, both the capitalist Establishment and the munist Establishment. Youth has to keep blasting away ( Establishment, Marcuse theorizes, and this was one retistudents at Columbia revolted even after their original of the Vietnam war was killed by the Paris truce talls.

IBEW strike may force move

Democratic leaders have been debating for com whether the threat of racial violence in Chicago mid it necessary to transfer the Democratic National Conlate August to Miami. They had decided not to transfer.

But now another obstacle has developed which may which has been continuing since May 8. Even if the workers were to begin work in the convention half could hardly finish the 80,000 man hours necessary of the sound equipment, telephones. TV connections, cital sary for a national convention.

Under Secretary of Labor James Reynolds has bent frantic conferences with Gordon Freeman, presidentelly and Joe Keenan, vice president, with the hope of strike. Reynolds has also been on the transational to with Joe Beirne, president of the Communication of America.

involved is rivalry between two powerful unload munications Workers, which has just negotiated of wage agreement with American Tel and Tel calling in a week wage increase over three years, and the little Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, whose Illinob an increase of $29 a week.

If Bell Telephone of Illinois gives the $29 increess of it would mean that its parent company, American IdC would have to go back and give the same increase to 100 150

Compared on Workero.

Could also mean months be produced by mean and the could be mean to be produced for $25 a week article of $45.

This is compared to the course of th dilemma for the Democrate. President George Man AFL-CID has been called to straighten things out, of no result.

What it boils down to is that the Democratic Notice vention will probably have to move to another city. leadero don't want to be instrumental in forcing and between two rival friends, Joe Beirne of the Commi Workers, and Gordon Freeman of the IBEW.

A lot of Democrate would just as soon leave Clar way, lastaliations would already be in place in for the Republicans. They can be held over for the off Aug. 26. Furthermore, Fuce Transon around much better then those in Chicago.

Morchants Bank gain in state

Merchants Bank and Trust o, of Bay St. Louis had the third largest gain among Mississippi banks, based on consumer deposits at the end of 1987, according to the vilssissippi Business Review.

Forty-nine banks in the state advanced in rankings, with Citizens National of Jackson gaining from 9,260 to 7,423 among the nation's banks, First National of Albany went up 1,626 notches and Merchants advanced 1,212 places. Gains of more than 500 places were achieved by five banks with six more advancing over 300 places in rankings. Dr. S.E. Trotter, head of Mississippi State's University Department of Finance, writes in the bureau's quarterly that recently published rankings of the nation's banks show Mississippi banks moving up in terms of deposits registered at the end of 1967.

Dr. Trotter reports that the 1967 growth in relative bank sizes reflects a marked decrease from 1966 gains, but that year-to-year increases mean that Mississippi's composite picture has either improved or declined.

The report states that many institutions showed dramatic gains for the year but lost ground in the rankings because even greater gains were recorded by banks with lower previous rankings.

Picayune man is charged with thefts

Steve Kennedy, 20, of Picayune was arrested Sunday afternoon on Rt. 43 by Beat 4 Constable Joe Dobson, when he was observed acting in a suspicious manner.

Kennedy was brought to Hanock County jail and questioned y Dobson and Deputy George Rayburn after he was found in possession of $69.95 in coin. a dozen packages of cigarettes, transistor radio and burglary tools. Rayburn called Picayune officers J.P. Walker, chief deputy, and Deputy Kenny Bounds, who arrived with a warrant, took Kennedy into custody and returned him to Pearl River county where the theft or thefts allegedly took place.

Thank You! Thank You!

The reception that you, the people of the Mississippi Coast, have given Merchants Bank during the last eleven months has been magnificent. Never before in the history of banking has an established financial inctitution registered such gains! We are overwhelmed, not by the statistics of our growth, but by your wonderful support

Last August we offered a new dimension in modern banking to the Mississippi Coast It was our conviction that banking should be a pleasunt, briendly, and relaxed experience. Now you have told us that we were right!

On behalf of our fellow officers and directors, we thank each of you cincerely and bumbly.

To there who have not yet joined us by opening an account at Merchanto Bank, we extern a warm, personal invitation to become a member of the Merchants Bonk family. Discover how pleasant banking can be!
